The new childcare service: Tax-Free Childcare and 30 hours

What's happening this year

- This year the government is introducing new support to help working families with the cost of childcare:
 - Tax-Free Childcare - will be available to around two million working households. For every £8 parents pay into an online account, the Government will pay £2 – up to a maximum annual contribution of £2,000 per child (£4000 for disabled children).
 - 30 Hours Free Childcare - available from September 2017, on top of the existing 15 hours free entitlement.
- A new childcare service will allow parents to apply for both Tax-Free Childcare and 30 hours in one simple application.

A bit about Tax-Free Childcare – our aims

It replaces childcare vouchers over time to extend support to more families

The self-employed

Parents whose employers don't offer childcare vouchers

Applying through the childcare service

1

Malcolm wants to know more about the Government's childcare offer

2

Malcolm looks online for more information.

3

Malcolm applies through the childcare service. First, he is asked to confirm his identity.

4

Once his identity is confirmed, Malcolm completes the application.

5

Malcolm gets his child's eligibility code for 30 hours. He can also pay money for Tax-Free Childcare into his childcare account.

6

Malcolm takes his 30 hours eligibility code to his childcare provider.

7

His childcare provider contacts to the Local Authority to check the eligibility code

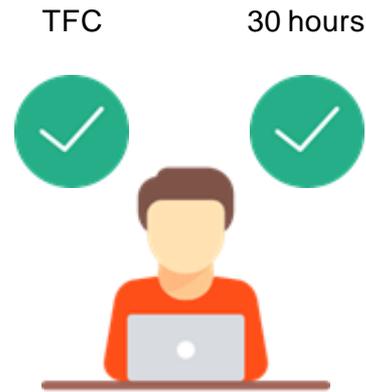

8

Every three months, Malcolm re-confirms eligibility through the childcare service

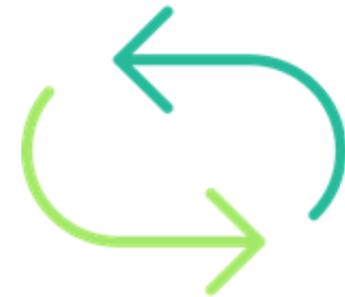

Key service principles: intelligent design

Streamlined eligibility requirements

Real-time eligibility checking

Reconfirmation every 3 months
